Ho-Chunk Nation Hosts 4th Annual Family Healing Camp

Kaili Berg

The Ho-Chunk Nation successfully hosted its 4th Annual Family Healing Camp, a three-day event dedicated to fostering healing, learning, and community connection from August 6-8, 2024, at the Andrew Blackhawk Powwow Grounds.

This year's theme, "A Safe Place to Learn, Share and Heal," reflected the camp's core mission: to offer a nurturing environment where families and individuals could connect with their Ho-Chunk culture, share their stories, and find pathways to healing.

The Family Healing Camp featured a wide range of activities designed to cater to all age groups. Participants engaged in learning circles, where they explored traditional practices, wellness strategies, and cultural teachings.

The event also included camping opportunities, allowing attendees to connect with nature and enjoy the beautiful surroundings of the powwow grounds.

Journey sharing sessions provided a platform for individuals to share

Ho-Chunk Nation Awarded $5.2 Million Grant for Housing Development

Kaili Berg

The Ho-Chunk Housing and Community Development Agency (HHCDA) has secured a significant boost in its mission to improve housing conditions for the Ho-Chunk Nation.

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has awarded HHCDA a $5.2 million grant through the Indian Housing Block Grant (IHBG) Competitive program.

This funding will pave the way for the construction of 17 new homes in the Winnebago Heights area near Wisconsin Dells, aiming to enhance the quality of life for numerous families within the community.

The development project will include a diverse array of housing options to meet the needs of the Ho-Chunk community.

The planned construction features two ADA-compliant duplexes, four additional duplexes, three four-bedroom single-family homes, and two three-bedroom single-family homes.

The initiative is set to commence in 2025 and represents a vital step toward providing affordable housing solutions and improving the overall living standards for Ho-Chunk Nation members.

The announcement of this grant was made during a special in-person visit by Richard J. Monocchio, Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of Public and Indian Housing.

Monocchio's visit included a meeting with HHCDA and Ho-Chunk Nation legislative representatives, where they discussed ongoing and future projects, particularly those in the Black River Falls area. Monocchio also took a quick tour of some of the ongoing developments.

The success in securing this grant is attributed to the dedicated efforts of HHCDA's team, especially the work of Angelina Hindsley, the agency's grant writer.

Hindsley's expertise and commitment were crucial in obtaining the funding, ensuring that the Ho-Chunk Nation can continue its work in providing affordable and accessible housing to its members.

This project marks a significant milestone for the Ho-Chunk Nation as it continues to address the housing needs of its community, ensuring a better future for its families.

Meals were provided throughout the event, ensuring that participants were well-fed and able to fully engage in the activities. On-site childcare services allowed parents to participate without worry, while various wellness activities, including fitness sessions and mental health workshops, promoted overall well-being.

Informational booths were set up to provide resources and support on health and wellness topics, and talking circles offered safe and confidential spaces for open dialogue. A scavenger hunt added a fun and engaging element, encouraging teamwork and exploration of the campgrounds.

The camp also featured a motivational presentation by Mike Bone, a dynamic duo known for their powerful messages of resilience and strength. Their presence energized and inspired participants, adding a unique and uplifting element to the event.

As the Ho-Chunk Nation continues to prioritize the well-being of its members, the Family Healing Camp provided an opportunity for participants to connect, learn, and heal together.

Celebrate Smokey Bear's 80th Birthday at Wisconsin State Parks

Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources

MADISON, Wis. – The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR) encourages the public to celebrate Smokey Bear's 80th birthday by making sure they understand the basics of wildfire prevention and practice fire safety while enjoying the outdoors.

The Smokey Bear campaign has helped children and adults throughout Wisconsin understand their role in preventing wildfires. For 80 years, Smokey Bear has empowered people to make a difference through his message of personal responsibility.

To commemorate Smokey's 80th birthday, the DNR is hosting several events at state parks and state forests across the state over the coming weeks. Join DNR staff to hear the story of Smokey Bear, enjoy a slice of birthday cake, listen to some live music or participate in a family-friendly fire safety activity.

Check the DNR Events Calendar to find out if Smokey will be paying a visit to your favorite public lands this summer.

Smokey's message of campfire safety is crucial whether you're camping in one of our state parks and forests or simply roasting hotdogs in your backyard; the same rules apply. When visiting a state campground and using one of our designated campfire rings, keep fires small and manageable.

It's essential to have plenty of water and tools on hand to keep your fire under control. Only burn clean, dry wood and use local firewood exclusively. Ensure that your tent and firewood are kept a safe distance away from the campfire, and never leave fires unattended. Before you leave the site, make sure that the fire is properly extinguished by using a lot of water—drown, stir, and repeat until the embers are cold.

Additionally, check the current fire danger on the WisBURN webpage before your visit.

Just like extinguishing a candle in a home before leaving, it's important to ensure campfires are completely extinguished before leaving your site. Keep a bucket of water nearby along with tools like a rake or shovel, and use the drown-stir-drown-feel method. Burying warm or hot coals or using sand are unreliable methods and can easily rekindle a fire.

By following these steps, everyone can safely enjoy the cool nights by your cozy campfire. Remember, only you can prevent wildfires!

Duane Allen Stacy-Turner

April 28, 1935 - August 2, 2024

Duane Allen Stacy-Turner of the Ho-Chunk Nation walked on to his next journey on August 2, 2024. He is the son of Marie Stacy-Turner (White Hawk) and the grandson of Stella B. Stacy (Mountain Wolf Woman).

While very young, Duane and his mother lived with his grandmother in Black River Falls, Wisconsin, attending grade school at the mission. Later they moved to Waterloo, Iowa. While living there, Duane met his future wife, Joan, and they were married in 1953. Eventually, Duane and Joan moved to California for better job opportunities.

Duane was a hard worker, committing himself to being a professional boxer before moving onto another path. He was always good at art and despite only having a 9th grade education, went back to school to become an Art Teacher. He worked full time at a factory to support his family while attending college at Long Beach State University. He received his B.A. in 1968 and would eventually return for his Master's Degree. Duane taught art in middle and high school for 28 years and loved his job.

He loved the out-doors and would spend many summers hunting with his son, Dean, in Utah. He also enjoyed fishing. One year on his summer break from teaching, he got a job as the Park Artist, in Sequoia National Park. They gave him a little cabin to live in, and he would meet with tourists and teach them how to paint. Eventually Duane and Joan would buy a cabin in Yosemite National Park, in a little town called Wawona, where they lived happily for 22 years.

When Duane retired, Duane and Joan bought a motor home and would travel all over the United States, visiting friends and family, and camping at interesting and beautiful places. They would go to Rocky River Resort in the mountains of Gunnison Colorado for one month every summer.

They would spend time relaxing, fishing, and hiking. They met many good friends there and really enjoyed it. When at home, Duane loved to paint, play scrabble with Joan, and do scrimshaw on necklaces and knives (which he would sell at the local market, or on E-Bay), and he always had a book with him, as he loved to read.

Duane was a loving and very generous man, who didn't have a prejudice bone in his body. When he would visit with his grandchildren, he would always give them at least a dollar. He called it a "grandpa buck" and they all loved it! His family was the most important thing in his life, always being supportive of them no matter the circumstance.

He was loved and will be greatly missed!

He is survived by his wife Joan, sons Dean (Carole) and Mark, and daughter Virginia (Michael).

Grandchildren, Angela, Jessica (Patrick), Nicholas (Taylor), Sarah (Timothy), Leah (Christopher), and Amber (Andrew).

Great-Grand-children, Danielle (Anthony), Christian, Landon, Kayla, Gabrielle, Evan, Aiden, Elizabeth, Phebe, and Axell.

Niece, Lisa M. Davis-Buttolph, and Nephews Tony Prohaska and Charlie Davis. And many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Marie Stacy-Turner, and Sister Rebecca Turner-Davis.

Trent Michael Stubrud

June 21, 2004 - August 12, 2024

Trent Michael Stubrud was born on June 21, 2004 in Black River Falls, Wisconsin. Trent passed away on August 12, 2024 at just 20 years old, at the UW-Madison Hospital.

Trent was always a precocious child and on the go. As a young boy he loved playing in the dirt and tearing apart things he shouldn't be tearing apart. As he grew older and wiser, he learned how to put those things back together.

Trent had the biggest heart and always went out of his way to help others. He had a light around him and a smirk that could make everything seem right in the world. He was his mama's fiercest protector and always made sure she was ok.

Trent was an incredibly hard working young man. He was always paving his way through life with just the sweat on his brow and a smile on his face. He enjoyed cutting wood and landscaping. He was always proud to share a finished job site.

He was an avid fisherman and hunter and just recently became quite skilled with a bow. He enjoyed shooting trap and target shooting. One of his favorite things to do was work on his truck builds and share his dreams of future ones. He loved the farming life and loved nothing more than working a field from dusk till dawn.

In 2021, Trent met the love of his life, Madison Spencer. They shared a special kind of love and bond that transcends every hardship, including his passing.

In 2023, Trent became a father to a son on May 1st and he beamed with joy. Weston Lee, brought hope, love and focus to Trent's life. Trent had big dreams and plans for Weston as he grows. We all have no doubt that Trent will be guiding him the whole way.

Trent wanted to make a difference in this world. He always wanted his life to mean something. He walked on from this life and did just that. Trent donated his gifts to those in need. No doubt, forever changing their lives.

Trent was a beloved son, father, significant other, nephew, brother and grandson. Trent's legacy is forever etched in the hearts of those who knew him.

Preceded in death by Paternal great uncle Jeff Hagen, and Great Grandma Donna Hagen, Maternal Great Grandparents John and Mae Whiteacre, Harry Straight and Susie Climer.

Survived by Madison Spencer, and his son Weston Lee. He is survived by his parents, mother Sara (Jamie) Goodbear, father Adam (Kaei) Stubrud, and stepfather Jamie Peterson. His sisters Alizabeth Peterson, Hadley and Sophie Stubrud, brothers Blake Peterson and Riley Stubrud. Maternal Grandparents Gary and Millie Climer, Paternal Grandparents Bernard and Linda Stubrud, Great Aunt Lori Slosser, Uncle Ben Stubrud, Aunts Larinna (Curtis) Chandler, April (Tom) Dode, Helen (Scott) Maslowski, cousins Kristine, Scout, Courtney, Lauren, and Emmett, Asuka, Mia, Matsu, Gabe and Great Grandpa Eugene Hagen. He is also survived by many friends and relatives.

A visitation will be held on Thursday, August 15 at Torgerson's Funeral Home in Black River Falls from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. and from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. the morning of Friday, August 16. A funeral service will be held on Friday, August 16 at 11:00 a.m. at the Torgerson's Funeral Home. Following the service, a burial will be held at the Little Norway Cemetery.

Sign Up For Fall Gun Deer Hunt For Hunters With Disabilities

Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources

MADISON, Wis. – The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR) reminds eligible hunters hoping to participate in the Gun Deer Hunt For Hunters With Disabilities to contact and confirm a location with a hunt landowner sponsor before Sept. 15, 2024.

Thousands of acres of land are available for this year’s hunt, which will take place Oct. 5-13, 2024. Hunters should contact sponsors directly to participate in the 2024 hunt.

Some properties can accommodate more hunters than others, so hunters are advised to contact potential sponsors as early as possible to determine availability.

“This special hunt offers hunters with disabilities the opportunity to deer hunt during a time and in a place that is more accessible for them,” said Brooke VanHandel,

DNR assistant deer and elk specialist. “We are so thankful for our landowner sponsors who are willing to partner with hunters and open their properties to allow more individuals to participate in Wisconsin’s deer hunting tradition.”

To sign up for a hunt, hunters or assistants should provide their name, contact information and DNR customer ID number. To be eligible, hunters must possess a valid Class A, C or D disabled permit or qualifying Class B permit. Eligible hunters may sign up for one sponsored property per year and must possess a gun deer license.

Wisconsin’s outdoors are for everyone. The DNR is committed to providing various hunting, fishing and recreational permits and unique opportunities designed to help give people with disabilities the opportunity to partake in Wisconsin’s abundant natural resources.

In Remembrance

Twenty-five Wisconsin Winnebago men volunteered for the First World War in the 128th Infantry, Company D, 32nd Red Arrow Division, Mauston, Wisconsin. The fine example set by these men is worth of exceptional praise because they were not even considered full-fledged citizens of this country at the time of their military service. Foster DeCorah and Robert DeCorah gave their lives on the battlefield on August 5, 1918. Their deaths were not in vain. This Nation exists today only because of the willingness of these brave men to preserve and protect their country by giving their lives in its defense.

Their unselfish dedication to the preservation of freedom was in keeping with the highest traditions of Wisconsin Winnebago Warriors and the United States Military Service.

In remembrance and with the utmost gratitude, this Memorial is humbly dedicated to the following Winnebago Veterans of World War One:

Madison College Secures $1M Grant to Advance Equity in STEM Education

Submitted by Madison College

Madison College has been awarded a $1 million grant from the National Science Foundation (NSF) to bolster its initiatives aimed at promoting equity in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) fields.

The grant will fund a comprehensive program that includes scholarships for talented, low-income students, awareness-raising events, and the expansion of mentorship and research opportunities through the Madison College STEM Center. The primary goal is to enhance the recruitment, retention, and career transition of underrepresented students in STEM disciplines.

As part of the initiative, at least 25 full-ride scholarships will be provided to students enrolled in the STEM

Transfer or Information Technology programs. Additionally, the project seeks to create a supportive ecosystem that fosters career development and contributes to a more diverse and competitive STEM workforce. This will lead to increased STEM education and career opportunities for students from historically marginalized communities.

Dr. Kit Carlson, Director of the STEM Center, highlighted the significance of the grant in advancing the college's mission.

"We're deeply honored to receive the NSF S-STEM grant at Madison College," Carlson said. "This funding will enable us to make a meaningful impact on how we recruit, retain, and support our STEM students. We're confident that this will greatly enhance student success and help build a diverse, well-prepared STEM workforce."

The grant will also support research into effective strategies for helping students succeed in STEM careers. By collaborating with local industries, academic institutions, and community organizations, Madison College aims to make a lasting impact on institutional practices and student success, furthering equity and access within STEM education.

Awarded in August 2024, the grant will extend through 2030. The project is led by Principal Investigator Dr. Kit Carlson, with Co-Principal Investigators Elise Van Ginkel, Ken McCullough, Angela Yang, and Dr. Kevin Mirus. The Madison College Grants Office provided vital support for the project.

Madison College has emerged as a leader in accessible STEM education in south-central Wisconsin, earning recognition as a Tech Hub by the Biden-Harris administration in 2023. Since the opening of the Madison College STEM Center in 2018, the college has established a robust network of partnerships with industry leaders, academic institutions, and community organizations.

This network includes industry giants like EPIC and Immuto Scientific, prestigious academic partners such as the UW Carbone Cancer Center and the UW-Madison Data Science Institute, and influential community organizations like Maydm and the Badgerland Girl Scouts.

Twelve Clans Makes Splash with First Real Estate Investment

Ho-Chunk Nation's Sovereign Wealth Fund, Twelve Clans, Has Ambitious Plans for Future in the Upper Midwest

Twelve Clans, in partnership with Monarch Holding Company and Sentinel Management Company will develop a 303-unit multifamily complex in Golden Valley, Minnesota. Last week, the team successfully closed on financing for the apartment complex, marking the start of the final phase of development. Last year, the development team constructed a new, smaller, Wells Fargo branch to make way for the apartments.

"We are committed to investing in the communities that we live in, and Ho-Chunk has many members in Minnesota, so it was a natural place for us to invest," said Chairman Joe Brown Thunder of Twelve Clans. "Golden Valley has excellent demographic fundamentals and a bright future which was appealing to us."

Established in 2016, Twelve Clans focuses on growing the Ho-Chunk Nation's portfolio of non-gaming investments. The company is actively exploring additional real estate investment opportunities in Minnesota and Wisconsin, with plans to make its next investment in Wisconsin near their new casino.

About Twelve Clans, Twelve Clans, Inc., "Looking to the Future" is a federally chartered Section 17 corporation under the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934, wholly owned by the Ho-Chunk Nation of Wisconsin. The corporation was created to address the growing demand for non-gaming employment opportunities, economic diversification, and innovative and sustainable infrastructure.

Wisconsin Native Vote Brewers Tailgate: Mobilizing Native Voters for the 2024 Election

Kaili Berg

On August 15, 2024, Wisconsin Native Vote hosted the "Biggest Native Tailgate" event at American Family Field in Milwaukee.

The event aimed to encourage Native American communities across Wisconsin to vote in the upcoming November election.

The event included voter registration drives, performances by the Smokey Town drum group, a Milwaukee Brewers game, and speeches from community leaders, including Shannon Holsey, president of the Stockbridge-Munsee Mohican Nation.

Holsey shared the story of Louis Leroy, a member of her tribe who played for the Boston Red Sox but was denied the right to vote because he was Indigenous. This story highlighted the ongoing struggle for Native rights and the importance of voting to protect those rights.

Wisconsin is home to over 50,000 eligible Native voters. With close races often decided by small margins, Native voters in Wisconsin have the potential to make a big difference in election outcomes.

However, many Native voters face challenges in registering to vote and accessing polling places.

Despite the importance of the Native vote, turnout among Native Americans was lower than the national average in the 2020 election.

According to the U.S. Census Bureau, only 60% of eligible Native voters participated, compared to 66.8% nationwide. Events like the tailgate aim to close this gap by encouraging more Native people to vote.

In recent elections, Native voters have shown they can influence key races. In 2020, Native voters in states like Arizona and Wisconsin played a crucial role in the outcomes.

As Native communities rally together, their collective voice has the power to shape the future of the state and the nation. With every vote, they honor their heritage and pave the way for future generations.
