Ho-Chunk Canoe Journey Highlights Sacred Sites and History in Milwaukee

Kaili Berg

On June 5, members of the Ho-Chunk Nation arrived by dugout canoe at the Milwaukee County Parks Riverboat Launch, completing a four-day journey along ancestral waterways.

The trip began in Green Bay and traveled through Door County before ending in Milwaukee, where tribal members visited Lake Park to honor ancestors buried at one of the city’s last remaining Indigenous mounds.

The journey is part of an annual tradition that began in 2022, blending cultural revitalization with public education. Participants have previously paddled from Madison to Beloit.

This year, tribal leaders invited local officials, UWM researchers, and community members to join them in the canoe and learn about their ties to the land and water.

“The dugout canoe journey is more than a trip, it’s a cultural reclamation,” said Ho-Chunk Nation President Jon Greendeer in a statement. “As we paddle these waters, we carry the stories of our ancestors, reconnect with the land and lake, and invite others to learn with us.”

The canoe itself was carved by Ho-Chunk youth from a single cottonwood trunk gifted by Dane County in 2018. In recent years, archaeologists have uncovered over 10 ancient canoes in Lake Mendota, one dating back 4,500 years.

While in Milwaukee, tribal leaders called attention to the mound in Lake Park, which sits near a softball field and overlooks Lake Michigan. It’s estimated to be around 40 feet wide and two feet high and was likely built between 300 B.C. and A.D. 400 during the Middle Woodland period.

Once, Milwaukee had thousands of these mounds, but most were destroyed by development. The mound’s plaque, placed in 1910, was recently removed because it encouraged visitors to walk on the sacred site.

Now, tribal leaders are working with local officials to find a better way to protect it.

“We don’t have the jurisdiction to protect the mound,” said Bill Quackenbush, Ho-Chunk Nation Tribal Historic Preservation Officer. “The city, county, and historical society do. We want to hold them to task.”

Though there’s some academic debate over which tribes built the mounds, Quackenbush said the Ho-Chunk have always considered the Milwaukee area part of their homeland.

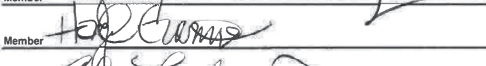

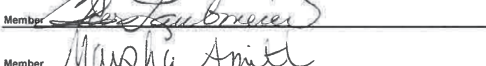

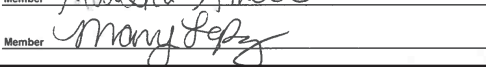

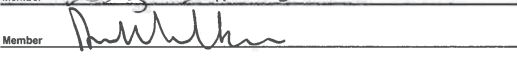

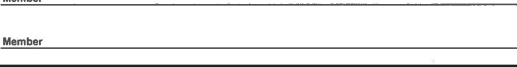

“Ancestrally, we have deep roots to this location,” Quackenbush said. “We recognize other tribes passed through or lived here too, and we don’t deny them that connection.”

A Message from the President

Honoring Our Heroes, Celebrating Our People

Greetings to all,
As we move into the heart of summer, I want to take a moment to share some important updates and extend my heartfelt appreciation to each and every one of you for your continued strength, resilience, and unity.

75th Year of Remembrance – Corporal Mitchell Redcloud Jr. Day

This year marks a historic and deeply meaningful milestone as we commemorate the 75th Year of Remembrance for Corporal Mitchell Redcloud Jr. — a true Ho-Chunk warrior and American hero. Cpl. Redcloud gave his life in the Korean War and was posthumously awarded the Medal of Honor for his incredible bravery and selfless sacrifice. His actions continue to inspire not only our Nation, but all who honor courage and service.

On June 9, 1999, the Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature designated July 4th as Corporal Mitchell Redcloud Jr. Day, establishing it as a paid holiday in his honor. This year, we are proud to launch the inaugural Mitchell Redcloud Jr. Day Parade to commemorate this special anniversary.

Please join us for a day of community and celebration, including a social dance, games, and activities such as Lacrosse, Double Ball, a Cornhole Tournament, Tug-of-War Challenge, and Three-Legged Races. It is a day to remember, to laugh, to connect — and most importantly, to come together in the spirit of Cpl. Redcloud's legacy. I extend a sincere thank you to all who are working hard to plan and coordinate this meaningful event.

Employee Appreciation Day – July 18, 2025
In recognition of the incredible work and perseverance of our Ho-Chunk Nation employees, I am pleased to announce our annual Employee Appreciation Day, which will be held on Friday, July 18, 2025, at Winnebago Park in Tomah, Wisconsin.

This day is a small token of gratitude for your hard work and dedication. Over the past few years, we've faced many challenges, but through it all, you have remained committed to moving this Nation forward. Whether your work is seen or unseen, it matters — and it makes a difference.

Our non-gaming employees are especially encouraged to attend this fun-filled day of celebration. It has been the mission of this administration to uplift our workforce, represent our Nation with integrity, and build a legacy of service and unity. I am incredibly proud of what we have accomplished together.

Welcome the Newly Elected Legislative Representatives

Lastly, I want to offer warm congratulations to our newly elected Legislative Representatives. Welcome aboard. We look forward to meeting with you at our upcoming Executive Director Meeting, where we will continue fostering strong, collaborative relationships that support the prosperity and wellness of our Nation.

Together, let's keep walking forward — with honor, with hope, and with gratitude.

Madison Arts Commission Seeks Applicants for Teejop Community History Public Art Project

The Madison Arts Commission (MAC) is seeking artists to create temporary outdoor public art installations for the Teejop Community History Public Art Project (TCHPAP) during the Summer and Fall of 2026. Selected artists will develop place-based art that honors and illuminates some of the rich cultural relationships with Teejop (pronounced day-JOPE), an area that now includes Madison. Selected artists should be able to craft installations designed to withstand outdoor elements for a minimum of three months. This project aims to create public art that will engage with locations, themes, and learning intentions identified by a local Ho-Chunk community group. The group, facilitated by staff from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, met for many years to carefully consider the locations and values included in this project. "In my opinion, this project has been guided by a profound sense of love, respect, and responsibility," Omar Poler, an Indigenous Educator Coordinator for UW-Madison, said. "It's a gift to our community that encourages us all to learn about Indigenous peoples, reflect, and mindfully engage with the beautiful place we all call home." Artists with meaningful connections to Teejop and/or Indigenous art are encouraged to apply. The selection process will prioritize proposals that meaningfully engage with the locations, themes, and learning intentions identified in the call for artists. "This initiative represents an important opportunity to bring together artistic expression and historical awareness in public places in Madison that are important to many Ho-Chunk people," said Nick Pjevach, Chair of the Madison Arts Commission. "We're excited to see how artists represent the stories and themes identified in this call for art." Project budgets range from $5,000 to $10,000, with initial applications requiring only an indication of potential funding level within this range. Detailed budgets will be required only for final proposals. The Request for Qualifications opens on June 1, 2025. The initial application deadline is July 8, 2025, by 11:59pm.

The first review by MAC will take place June 14, 2025, and selected finalists will be notified in August. An in-person orientation for finalists will be held on August 22, 2025. The exhibition period will run from August 1 to November 1, 2026. For complete application guidelines, theme information, and site locations visit the MAC website: <https://www.cityofmadison.com/dpced/planning/grants-opportunities/3842/> The Teejop Community History Public Art Project (TCHPAP), is generously supported by a major grant from Madison Community Foundation's Year of Giving with additional support from the City of Madison, Madison Arts Commission, and UW-Madison.

Red Cloud; Autobiography of (War Leader of the Oglala) edited by R. Eli Paul. The core of the book repeats 21 stories told by Red Cloud to his white friend Deon. Eli Paul expends considerable length explaining the origin of the Red Cloud manuscript, its loss and re-discovery. But it is the 21 stories which gives life to the events in Red Cloud's life during the early to late 1800's on the western plains. Scalpings, horse stealing, and taking the lives of rival tribes, Crow, Pawnee, Shoshones, make up large parts of the of Red Cloud's stories. Importantly, the stories also give a view of life in the village and interaction with other tribal leaders. A quote from Red Cloud, "I was born a Lakota and I have lived as a Lakota and I shall die a Lakota." He died 1909 on Pine Ridge. The Hocak Waagax

Kristin White Eagle Sworn in as Vice President of the Ho Chunk Nation

Kailli Berg

The Ho-Chunk Nation Legislature has appointed Kristin White Eagle as the Nation’s new Vice President, effective May 27, 2025.

A seasoned leader with years of legislative and community service, White Eagle brings a strong record of advocacy, sovereignty work, and cultural leadership to the role.

White Eagle, who represents District 2 in the Legislature, has served multiple terms and also sits on the Sauk County Board of Supervisors.

She was instrumental in establishing Indigenous Peoples’ Day in Sauk County and has helped lead cultural celebrations and intergovernmental partnerships through her role in the “ONE SAUK, NATURALLY” initiative.

In her time as a legislator, she has championed the Ho-Chunk Nation’s rights to self-governance, supporting cannabis decriminalization, advancing environmental protections through a Rights of Nature Charter, and promoting wellness initiatives like healing-to-wellness courts.

Waagax Hakiruxara Hosto Grows Amid Federal Funding Challenges

Kailli Berg

The Waagax Hakiruxara Hosto Library opened in September 2024 to serve as a space rooted in Indigenous knowledge, culture, and access to often-censored books.

Now, the library is navigating federal changes that could impact the funding it relies on.

Located at the District 1 Community Center in Black River Falls, the library uses a unique classification system that reflects community values.

Books are organized by themes like Ho-Chunk history, Indigenous authors, MMIWP, military service, and traditional foods. A red handprint sticker marks MMIWP titles, the Nation’s seal indicates Ho-Chunk-specific works, and Indian corn highlights books on Indigenous foods.

“We’re trying to build something that lasts,” said Lucas Quackenbush, the library’s first assistant. “It’s really cool seeing people find books that reflect their identity and stories. That means a lot.”

The library was created in response to calls from Ho-Chunk elders for a space that removed barriers and honored Indigenous perspectives.

“We didn’t want barriers,” said lead librarian Leslie Falcon. “We wanted people, especially kids and elders, to come in and find what they needed.”

Unlike most public libraries, Waagax Hakiruxara Hosto does not use the Dewey Decimal or Library of Congress systems. Its collections are built around topics relevant to the community, including a growing section of banned and challenged books.

Anita Louise WhiteEagle Winneshiek, age 86, passed away at the family homestead in Black River Falls, WI, on May 30, 2025, surrounded by her family. She was born December 31, 1938, to Fredrick WhiteEagle and Annie Winnie Winneshiek in Wittenberg, WI.

After High School she worked multiple jobs. She was a social worker assistant and helped in multiple areas. Her family would describe her as a jack of all trades. Anita also worked at the American Indian Center in Chicago. In her spare time she enjoyed playing Bingo at the Casino.

Anita was so proud of her children, grandchildren, and great grandkids. She was overjoyed every time a new addition came into our lives. She welcomed everyone into her life and home with unconditional love.

Anita is survived by her children, Ernest (Diana), Albert, Lucinda (Angie, Jacqueline, Chelsea), Anita (Lena, Elizabeth, Jesse, and Austin), David (Malya, Dawson, Kaylee, Taliana, Kunu, Jayden, Alayna, Amira), Theodore (Katalea, Tobyn); 22 great grandchildren; and 3 great great grandchildren.

Martin James Yellowbank

November 23, 1944 – June 2, 2025

Walker, Mildred Walker, Jeanette Yellowbank, Fern Yellowbank, Jeannie Yellowbank, and Judy Yellowbank.

Martin walked a long, winding road filled with challenges, healing, laughter, and service. With deep pride, he celebrated 43 years of sobriety—an achievement that became a cornerstone of his life. His journey led him to work as an AODA counselor and cook at the St. Augustine Center in Chicago, where he helped others find their own path to recovery. His guidance didn't end there—he continued counseling and supporting others well into his later years.

He made his home in many places over the years—Wyeville, WI; Chicago, IL; Baraboo, WI; and Tomah, WI—each community touched by his presence and his unwavering spirit.

Martin had a heart as big as his voice. He loved music, karaoke, and singing. He wrote poetry with soul and expressed himself through art. He could light up a room—especially if that room had women in it. Martin was a lifelong flirt, charming everyone from nursing staff to bingo buddies with that unmistakable sparkle in his eye.

He found joy in simple pleasures—bingo, casino trips, good conversations, and making people laugh. He often told parents, with a knowing grin and the biggest smile that “kids aren’t naughty — they’re just playful.” That blend of compassion, wit, and old-school charm made him truly one of a kind.

He spent his final days under the compassionate care of the Tomah Nursing and Rehab and St. Croix Hospice staff, for whom he had nothing but kind words and heartfelt gratitude. Their respect and kindness did not go unnoticed by him—or unappreciated by his family.

Martin is survived by numerous nieces and nephews, extending all the way to his great-great-grandnephew—a legacy of love, stories, and strength that continues through generations.

Martin James Yellowbank lived a life of resilience, joy, mischief, and meaning. His humor, wisdom, and presence will be deeply missed and warmly remembered by all who had the honor of knowing him.

Funeral Services will be held on Thursday, June 5, 2025 at 12:00 p.m. (NOON) at the Blue Wing Community Center in Tomah. Visitation will be from 10:00 a.m. until Noon. Burial will follow in the Mission Church Cemetery in Black River Falls. A traditional meal will be held on Thursday at 7:00 p.m. at Blue Wing Community Center. The Torkelson Funeral Home of Tomah is assisting the family with arrangements. Online condolences may be offered at www.torkelsonfuneralhome.com.

He was born in on June 13th, 1944 to Benedict and Maggie (Woodman) Yazzie in Arizona, where he grew up with his four siblings; James, Betty, Mariella, and Grace. Anthony attended and graduated from the Inner Mountain Indian School in Pheonix, AZ before proudly serving in the U.S. Army.

Following his military service, Anthony relocated to Chicago, where he trained as a welder and began an apprenticeship as an ironworker. This would become his lifelong profession. Over a dedicated 45-year career, he built a legacy of skill, strength, and commitment before retiring.

In 1972, Anthony married the love of his life, Mary Ann Funmaker. Together, they were blessed with one son, Aaron. Anthony remained devoted to his faith throughout his life while dealing with any obstacles while raising his family. Raised in the Native American Church, he continued to practice and support its teachings, especially after moving to Merrillan, WI, where he became deeply involved in the local congregation.

Anthony was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Mary Ann (Funmaker) Yazzie; his parents, Benedict and Maggie Yazzie; and his siblings—James Yazzie, Betty Kee, Mariella Charlie, and Grace Yazzie.

Wisconsin's
Indian Country.

At First American Capital Corporation (FACC), we believe in the power of Indigenous-owned businesses to drive economic growth, create jobs, and build wealth in Wisconsin's Indian Country. As a mission-focused lender, we provide access to capital through business loans, expert technical assistance, and advocacy to ensure Native entrepreneurs have the resources needed to succeed—on and off the reservation.

Our goal? To be a stepping stone—helping our borrowers strengthen their financial position so they can graduate to mainstream banking. When one business thrives, it lifts an entire community.

Let's build the future together. Partner with FACC and grow your business today.
